2. Education Session:

- TMOD: Sara Toyama introduced the theme: June is National Candy Month so the theme chosen was: "Candy". Sara then introduced:
- Time Keeper: Eddie Joseph, DTM Eddie explained his role as Timekeeper
- AH/Grammarian/Word of the Day: Daniel Lum, TM explained his role and introduced the word of the day: "Scrumptious"
- Jokemaster/inspiration: Rose told a joke about a lady and a check.

3. Featured Speakers:

- Featured Speaker #1: Joyce Bullion, TM gave a speech called "APPRECIATION". It was speech number 9 Competent Communication Manual. Joyce told about a time in her life when she felt unappreciated and how she overcame it. She went on a campaign of telling each person how much she appreciated them and it filled that void. Joyce persuaded everyone to express appreciation for small things and big things in life-to military, mates, postmen and restaurant workers. She had passed out candy kisses to express appreciation to fellow Toastmaster's.

- Speaker 2: Guy Kidder, TM came to the point and stressed how Kapolei has grown in size and will continue to grow after the rail comes in. He delivered speech number 3 in the Competent Communication manual titled: "THE CITY". Guy showed us a visual aid of a map in which he recently sold land to a developer. He stressed that Kapolei will grow in size and will be second to Honolulu in the not too far off future.

4. Table Topics:

- Table Topics Master: Holly Holloway, CC, CL, had just received her Toastmaster magazine and suggested we do a progressive Table Topic. She said her mother made fudge and asked Alex to come up and share about the ingredients.
- TT 1: Alex Agsalud, TM said she went to Costco and different stores to buy the ingredients.
TT 2: Mariea Vaughan, TM, said she put in ingredients and didn't measure but guessed at the amounts and tasted to see if it was right. She used less sugar than the recipe called for and used olive oil instead of butter because it was healthier.
- TT 3: Carryssa Krzyska shared that she used the ingredients she had on hand.

Holly ended with telling us her mom took the fudge out of the oven and it had not solidified so everyone ate it with a spoon.

5. Evaluation Session:

- Evaluator #1: Rose Martinez, ACB, CL evaluated Joyce Bullion and gave Joyce kudos for accomplishing the goals of persuading others to express appreciation even for small things in life. She mentioned that Joyce had good voice tones but could improve by using less notes and by using better eye contact. Rose stressed that the speaker area is vast and that it can all be used along with body language.
- Evaluator #2: James Fu, ACB, CL, evaluated Guy and expressed how much he enjoyed the content of Guy's speech and what a great topic he chose. James suggested that Guy use an overhead projector or a tripod to showcase his map for all to see well. He also suggested Guy take a more dramatic approach by pointing out the window and showing all the building equipment to display how Kapolei is growing. James said he looks forward to hearing more from Guy.

6. Reports:

- Timekeeper: Eddie gave a thorough report of everyone's time. No one went over.
- Grammarians/Ah Counter: Daniel Gave a thorough report and many used filler words like "ah", "and" and "so" and many had effective pauses. Most used the word of the day "Scrumptious".
- TMOD Closing remarks: Sara gave her closing remarks. We all appreciated Sara's creative candy effects.

7. General Evaluator: Holly Holloway, CC, CL, remarked that the room and equipment and tables were ready in advance. She suggested we have more members and more guests at future meetings and she gave kudos to Sara for her creative gift of being TMOD. Holly mentioned how Sara had used paper medals for the meeting with a theme of “The Olympics” in the past.

8. Announcements/Adjournment: James Fu and Holly Holloway ended with announcing the upcoming District 49 Officer’s Training Class on July 12 at the University of Phoenix, Fort Street Mall. James asked people to sign up for future roles. Rose announced that Eddie Joseph, DTM, is our new Division Governor and Rose admitted she is the new Area Governor after July 1, 2014.
