Each new year brings the promise of a clean slate to re-make our bodies, our minds, our spirits, and our lifestyles. We make resolutions to lose weight, quit smoking, save money, or finish up that home renovation that has been sitting unfinished for the past six months.

EDUCATIONAL TIP: Make it easy for the TMOD to introduce you by sending him or her some facts and trivia about yourself.

- What's your favorite hobby?
- Where do you work?
- What's your educational goal?
- ...get creative and crazy!

NEWSLETTER STAFF:

In America, 45% of people will make a resolution but only 8% will succeed.

Let's be that 8% by:

- ◆ Focusing - set a target: "Finish 3 speeches by July is better than "Do a speech"
- ◆ Challenging - our goals shouldn't be too easy nor too difficult
- ◆ Committing - share your resolutions with others
- ◆ Reminding - Write it down in detail and post where you'll see it often
- ◆ Visualizing - Imagine the results you want everyday

JUST FOR FUN

Good luck everyone,
you can do it!

A New Year's Message From Your Officers!

"Since I'm busy being an officer, I'd like to commit myself to do an advanced speech. I've been procrastinating doing my next advanced speech and being an officer should be no excuse."

— James, President

"My THREE resolutions for 2012!

1. DTM by Dec 31, 2012
2. New evening club charter by March 31, 2012
3. Help Kapolei TM grow and reach their goal"

— Barney, SAP

"Happy New Year fellow Toastmasters! Thank you so much for your friendship and encouragement. I resolve to continue serving you the best that I can!"

— Kenoilani, VP-Education

— Kimberly, VP-Public Relations
